

Toyosu Market Visitor's Course

Toyosu Market consists of 3 blocks handling different fresh foods and functions within the market.

[Block 6] Fisheries Intermediate Wholesale Market Building

This is where local fishmongers and sushi restaurants come to purchase fisheries.

Visitor's Course

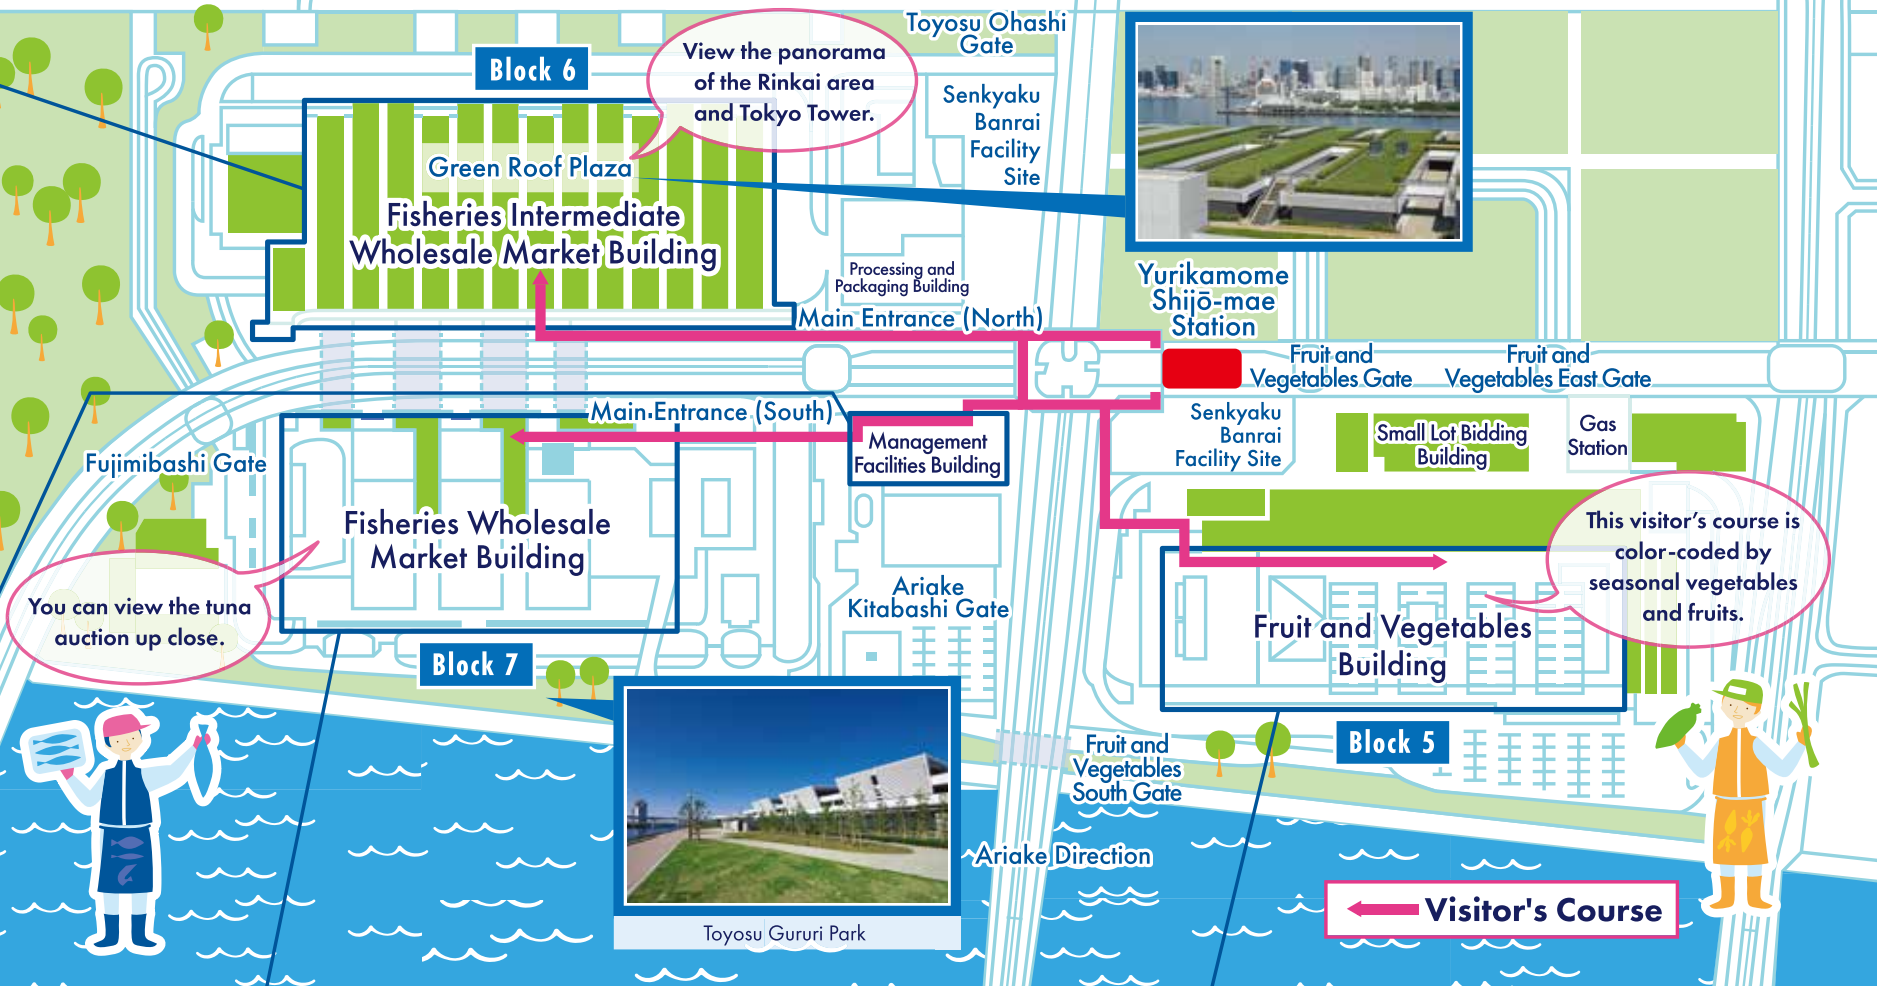

Turret Forklift on Exhibit

[Block 7] Management Facilities Building

Promotional Corner

View the panorama of the Rinkai area and Tokyo Tower.

You can view the tuna auction up close.

This visitor's course is color-coded by seasonal vegetables and fruits.

← Visitor's Course

[Block 7] Fisheries Wholesale Market Building

This is where domestic and foreign fisheries are gathered and traded. Here, the tuna auction is viewable from the visitor's deck.

Tuna Auction Observation Deck

Visitor's Hall

[Block 5] Fruit and Vegetables Building

There is a wholesale market that handles domestic and foreign vegetables and fruits and intermediate wholesale shops where restaurants and local vegetable vendors purchase items.

Visitor's Deck

Fruit and Vegetables Wholesale Market (Viewable from the deck)

Market Related Restaurants